

Fleet Driver Course

The day begins with an assessment of each driver. This is followed by feedback to each driver to establish their training needs. An assessment form is provided for each driver.

The next stage is to perfect your On the Road driving skills

Example of topics that can be covered:

- Moving off and stopping
- Junctions
- Motorway Driving
- Town & City
- Country Roads Awareness & Planning
- Eco Style Driving

And any other topic the company may wish a driver to cover.

Training packages can be tailored to suit individual company requirements.

A full day of training (Six hours) is charged at £350 per day per trainer (inclusive).

A maximum of three drivers can be trained at one time.

The amount of training required is dependant on the ability of each individual driver. In most cases, one day is sufficient.
